H. W. RAYMOND, Secretary

Chariton, Iowa.

April 7, 1917.

Iowa Highway Commission,
Ames, Iowa.

Gentlemen:

Attention Mr. F. W. Parrott:

Referring to your recent letter calling my attention to a sign erected at the junction of the Blue J Highway with the Jefferson Highway in Warren County, beg to advise that this sign was not erected by our association but must have been placed there by the Missouri men while marking the route to Des Moines and boosting Excelsior Springs.

As soon as the weather permits we shall send out a marking crew to remark the Highway, and I shall instruct them that if such sign so reads as to be in conflict with the other highway, it should be changed to conform with the authorized marking of our association.

Very truly yours,

H. W. Raymond
Secretary.
