SUBJECT: Transportation Research Video On-line

DATE: January 8, 2009

The Iowa Department of Transportation Research & Technology Bureau's new video, Transportation Research Projects at Work – *Making a Difference, is now online (please email me if you'd like some DVD copies). The video is approximately six minutes in length and highlights four innovative research projects making a difference in the lives of Iowans and people across the nation. Topics are:

- Precast Bridge Approach Pavement
- Urban Teen Driver Study
- Winter Maintenance Snow Plow Blade Research
- Bridge Monitoring Using Sensors

Please share this email with your colleagues and visit our web site to view the video: <http://www.iowadot.gov/research/index.htm>.

Watch the video - see what's new in Iowa transportation research!

Please do not hit the reply option in your e-mail note.
