POINTS OF INTEREST

A-5. Ocheyedan Mound. An Indian mound which is the highest point in Iowa, has an altitude of 1,670 feet and rises 170 feet above the surrounding countryside.	F-25. Old Shot Tower. Old stone shot tower in Dubuque, constructed in 1855, was used for molding lead shot. In later days, when the lumber industry was important along the Mississippi River, it was also used by a lumber mill as a watchtower.	G-26. St. Donatus. In 1850 settlers from Luxembourg built the village of St. Donatus along the lines of a small farm. The home, which is located in a peaceful spot northeast of Muscatine, is still standing.	I-23. Stone City. Locale of a number of Grant Wood paintings. The Iowa Art Colony during the summers of 1932 and 1933 worked here under Mr. Wood's supervision.	J-17. Tama Indian Reservation. Home of the Sac and Fox Indians. Annually, in mid-August, a four-day powwow is held at which various Indian dances are presented. The public is admitted for a small charge.	K-20. Amana Colonies. In the fertile Iowa river valley between Marengo and Iowa City, lie the Amana Colonies. Founded in 1855 by colonists from Germany seeking religious freedom. Many customs of the original colonists still remain.	L-26. Credit Island. Now a city park, Credit Island was the location of an early trading post and site of a battle between troops of the United States and Great Britain fought on August 12, 1814.	R-22. Montrose. Site of one of the first permanent white settlements in Iowa. It was also the site of the first Fort Des Moines, which was established in 1824.	C-23. Effigy Mounds National Monument is located near McGregor in northeast Iowa. It is one of the most recently established national monuments and contains many Indian mounds. Both cover pictures were taken in vicinity.
